1. I go sit at the table with the King, because, that's who I've become, that's who I am. I go sit at the King's table and become the King. That's the picture of Melchizedek. That's the story of Melchizedek becoming Melchizedek, and now Melchizedek'ing others now.

2. Once I have come out of the land that I have known, to go to THE PROMISED LAND, and come into it, I sit down with the King, and have communion. He has the table, he is the wine and I drink of him his life and we become the one; not subject to time space anymore.

3. So I am Melchizedek in Melchizedek birthing forth Melchizedek and now all of this is happening experientially, and I become that which I have studied and wrote about and written about. I am now for I become that which I behold. I behold the master maker for I've become it. The pattern I am is me because I became it, fashioned on Jesus not, but being him who he is, for he I am, is only one, and that's all of us who one are, becoming one as we enter the Holy Promised Land.
